

The Littleton Symphony Orchestra (LSO) is seeking a Music Director to serve as Artistic Director and Principal Conductor beginning with the 2022-23 season. Reporting to the LSO Board of Directors, the Music Director programs and conducts works each season from the full range of orchestral literature as well as popular music. The LSO, a community orchestra in its 37th season, is part of the vibrant cultural scene in the Denver metropolitan area. Recent seasons have included four subscription concerts, one holiday concert, one children's concert, and an early evening New Year's Eve concert fundraiser.

Duties and Responsibilities include but are not limited to:

- Conducting all Orchestra concerts, as well as the rehearsals for those concerts.
- Determining rehearsals and rehearsal schedules along with the Executive Director and Board of Directors.
- Working with the Executive Director, Board of Directors, and orchestra members at large in determining the programming for the regular concert season within the music budget set by the Board of Directors.
- Working effectively with guest soloists.
- Chairing all audition panels.
- Abiding by and implementing the policies of the LSO as adopted by the Board of Directors.
- Maintaining effective communication with LSO members, staff, and board of directors, as well as audiences, supporters, and the community at large.
- Attending Board of Directors meetings as a non-voting, ex officio member.
- Through strategic planning, working with the Board of Directors and Executive Director to define and update the mission, vision, and values of the LSO.

Compensation: Commensurate with Position Requirements, Experience & Qualifications

Successful applicant will have a breadth of knowledge in the orchestral repertoire and meet the following preferred requirements:

- Advanced degree in Music or equivalent years of commensurate experience
- Five years of orchestral conducting experience
- Commitment to uphold the LSO vision, core values, and policies
